

Maurizio Dallochio

Maurizio Dallochio, after Bocconi University, studied at London Business School and New York University – Stern School of Business where he has also been visiting scholar. He is nowadays Professor of Corporate Finance at Bocconi University, Milan, and had been teaching and researching around the world (CEIBS Shanghai, IMD Business School Switzerland, Stockholm School of Economic etc.). Licensed Public Accountant and Auditor, he concentrates his research mainly in Corporate Finance, and particularly in Corporate Valuation and Mergers & Acquisitions. He is the author of numerous publications; amongst them, he is co-author of Corporate Finance published by Wiley and Sons. He has been chairman of the Audit Committee of the European Investment Bank (EIB).