

Michela Sperandio is head of the BNY Mellon Corporate Trust business in Italy, based in Milan. The business provides core offerings such as trustee, administration and agency services to help issuers expertly navigate the ever-changing debt capital markets.

With more than 17 years of banking experience in the capital markets, including 15 years in corporate trust, Michela drives the strategy, product development and client partnership across Italy.

Prior to joining BNY Mellon Italy, Michela held leading positions at a premiere Italian bank and JP Morgan, both based in London.