

MARCO TURRINA

Chief Executive Officer

Banca Akros

Marco Turrina holds a degree in business administration from Bocconi University. From 1981 to 1985 he worked at the Chase Manhattan Bank in London and Milan, in the Corporate Finance and Treasury departments. From 1985 to 1987, he worked at Barclays International (BZW) in London and Milan as a supervisor responsible for the Mergers and Acquisitions and the Treasury areas, and for the introduction and development of derivatives products in Italy. In 1987 he was one of the founders of Akros Group, a public company involved in a variety of financial activities. In 1991 he was appointed managing director of Akros Attimo Sim and Akros Sim. In 1997, after obtaining the Bank of Italy's authorisation to change Akros Attimo Sim into a Bank, he was appointed chief executive officer and general manager. In 1998, when Banca Popolare di Milano took over Banca Akros SpA, he was reconfirmed as chief executive officer and general manager. In 2000, he also became chairman of Akros Alternative Investments SGR SpA. He was a board member of GSN North America Inc., a New York broker dealer. He is a member of the Investment Committee of the private equity firm Wise SGR and he is vice chairman of the Steering Committee of Assosim. He is also member of the Steering Committee of Banca Akros' parent company Gruppo BANCO BPM. Marco Turrina has collaborated as a member of the Advisory Council with Bocconi, and with Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Luiss, Tor Vergata and Castellanza Universities as a lecturer in seminars and workshops.